Nursing Care of Children & Families

---

INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

The Journal of Pediatric Nursing: Nursing Care of Children and Families (JPN) is interested in publishing evidence-based practice, quality improvement, theory, and research papers on a variety of topics from US and international authors. JPN is the official journal of the Society of Pediatric Nurses and the Pediatric Endocrinology Nursing Society.

Journal content covers the life span from birth to adolescence. Submissions should be pertinent to the nursing care needs of healthy and ill infants, children, and adolescents, addressing their biopsychosocial needs.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE

Feedback and advice about the topic and its development will be provided. Correspondence via email is preferred. Dr. Foster can be reached at mandie.foster@aut.ac.nz.

Authors interested in submitting a manuscript to one of the JPN departments are encouraged to contact the department editors directly. Their names and contact information are listed here:

Pediatric Endocrinology Nursing Society: Carol Howe at carol.howe@tcu.edu; Society of Pediatric Nurses: Debra Ridling at debra.ridling@seattlechildrens.org; Pediatric Research Reports: Rosemary White-Traut at RWhite-Traut@chw.org.

THE REVIEW PROCESS

This is a referred journal. All manuscripts received by the Editor-in-Chief and sent to reviewers are treated as privileged communication. Manuscripts are submitted electronically via the JPN website pediatricnursing.com. Manuscripts will be assigned to reviewers for blind review. Generally, manuscripts are sent to two review experts. The original review team reviews manuscripts requiring revisions to ensure consistency.

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS FOR MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION

The text and reference of the manuscript must conform in style to the American Psychological Association (APA) Guidelines 7th Edition. The information required for the electronic submission is detailed below:

- 1) Title Page: The following information should appear on the title page:
  - a) title of the manuscript;
  - b) author (s) name (s) with highest degree earned;
  - c) position title;
  - d) institutional affiliation (s);
  - e) institutional addresses;
  - f) email address, telephone and fax number of corresponding author;
  - g) acknowledgement of extramural funding;
  - h) identification of previous presentation (s) of paper to include meeting name, date and location; and
  - h) any commercial financial support.
- 2) Article Type: Identify type of article that is to be submitted: research paper, clinical article, review/theoretical, brief report, column, letter to the editor.
- 3) Author Information: Insert information on corresponding author and remaining authors as well as academic degrees, institutional affiliations and email addresses.
- 4) Abstract: Approximately 50 to 100 words in length, which is typed directly/pasted as a separate file. Abstract is to conform to the APA 6th edition guidelines.
- 5) Manuscript Classification: Identify the manuscript's topical area by selecting one or more classifications from the list.

- 6) Comments: Enter comments that are to be directed to the Editor-in-Chief/Department Editors.
- 7) Cover Letter: Submit as a separate file to the editor the following: the title of the paper, contact information for the corresponding author, disclosure of information if any previous presentations of data have been given, the manuscript is not being currently reviewed by another journal, other manuscripts with related data currently submitted to other journals, and disclosure of financial interests.
- 8) Manuscript Text: Submit as a separate file. The manuscript narrative format should conform to the APA 6th edition guidelines. The manuscript should include page numbers and continuous line numbering but no personal identification of the author. There is not a fixed limit to manuscript length; however, it is essential that it be appropriate for the manuscript type and succinct in presentation. Manuscript pages should be double spaced.
- 9) Tables and Figures: These are submitted as separate files. Tables and Figures should be complementary and not duplicative of the manuscript narrative. Format tables using APA 6th edition guidelines.
- 10) Artwork/Photographs: Refer directly to the "Author Artwork Guidelines" on the website.
- 11) The Journal of Pediatric Nursing has adopted the following guidelines to assist authors and reviewers. Please consult the applicable guidelines during manuscript development.
  - CONSORT guidelines for randomized controlled trials: <http://www.consort-statement.org>
  - SQUIRE guidelines for quality improvement projects: <http://www.squirestatement.org>
  - STROBE checklist for observational studies (most original articles): <https://www.equator-network.org/reporting-guidelines/strobe/>
  - PRISMA checklist (for all systematic reviews) and AMSTAR-2 checklist (for systematic reviews of interventions): <https://www.equator-network.org/reporting-guidelines/prisma/>
  - PRISMA-ScR guidelines for scoping reviews: <https://www.equator-network.org/reporting-guidelines/prisma-scr/>

  - CARE guide for case series: <https://www.equator-network.org/reporting-guidelines/care/>
  - Other types of study (eg, Diagnostic Accuracy): visit the Equator website at <http://www.equator-network.org/library/>
- 12) Brief Report: These manuscripts are short reports of original studies or clinical evaluations that are limited in scope, contain novel or provocative findings that need further replication, or represent replications and extensions of prior published work. A structured abstract is required. Recommended length: 1000-1500 words (not including abstract, tables, figures, references, and online-only material) with no more than a total of 3 tables and/or figures. The Brief Report should give a clear, condensed summary of the procedure of the study or the clinical evaluation and as full an account of the results as space permits. An author who submits a Brief Report must agree not to submit the full report to another journal of general circulation.
